KEYMACRO is an application that was developed specifically for Mac users that want to quickly open a file. This is more or less a two-in-one solution as it allows its user to open the file that he needs to open on one hand and write a short text on the other. You have to be a little more careful with it though, as you might cause some loss. Easy to use Installation is really straightforward and it does not require any additional tools. You are just going to have to copy the file to your Mac's folder and then run it. Key Features: Powerful and customizable tool It is more than powerful enough to open up to 50 files. It is fully compatible with any version of OS X and it is well suited for both power and novice users. The tool does not require any specific input. Customizable behavior The software comes with a single set of actions and commands, but you are allowed to change them as you please. You can set up a shortcut to start the application, specify how many times it will be opened at a time, and also set up a shortcut for when the application is already open. TeamViewer Description: TeamViewer is a software application that was developed specifically for remote accessing. It is similar to Jitsi, yet it does not rely on any connection, but it uses a direct IP connection. This means that you are going to have a single point of contact with your targeted computer, the only thing you will have to worry about is whether it is running or not. You are going to be able to control it from the same web browser. Remote access to files and folders TeamViewer was specifically developed to support remote access to both the files and folders on the targeted machine. You are going to be able to remotely change the state of the desktop, file folders, documents, and more. Customized desktop If you ever experience low-performance issues with the remote desktop, it is not going to be a problem here. You are going to be able to customize everything including the desktop and file folder. VNC/RDP Access Description: VNC/RDP is a software application that was developed specifically for remote accessing. It is very similar to TeamViewer, yet it does not support just any file or folder, it will support just the applications on the targeted computer.
