The best way to improve your understanding of financial markets is to actually invest your own money in them. Open an account with a reputable online broker such as Interactive Brokers, TD Ameritrade or Scottrade and fund it with $5,000. To make your first trade, buy stock in an index fund like the iShares S&P 500 Index Fund (symbol ITWX) or Vanguard's 500 Index Fund (VFINX).

You can buy these funds through brokers, but you'll likely need to place a separate order for each one. Once your account is set up, you'll be ready to trade. If the New York Knicks lose to the Brooklyn Nets on Friday night, they will suffer two consecutive crushing defeats, and their season may come to a close. For an organization that has won three titles and played in 12 consecutive Finals, a two-game losing streak would be a massive problem.
